

SF-182
CCSS Writing Academy
Short Research Projects
Two Day Training

Synopsis: This one day session provides participants with the knowledge of how to teach short research projects in order to meet the writing expectations set forth in the Common Core State Standards. Participants will actually write their own pieces in order to fully understand the methodology to use in their own classrooms.

Target Audience: School staffs, including teachers, para-professionals, coaches, and administrators.

Goals:

- Develop understanding of what short research projects means for the classroom and how they can be used across content.
- Create confidence and comfort in ability to short research projects.
- Help teachers address the CCSS in Writing.

Outcomes:

- Understand how to implement research techniques and writing instruction for research project writing in the classroom.
- Understand how to use cultural writing as mentor text to create student engagement.
- Write original pieces that can be used as mentor text in the classroom.
- Increase teacher ability to provide quality writing instruction in the classroom.

For information regarding specific pricing and scheduling, please contact:
jbyrne@byrneandassociates.org